

ACROSS:

3. A shark that can rest on the bottom and feeds on clams and oysters
6. The "door" of a snail shell
7. The largest fish in the ocean today
11. Marine camouflage seen in penguins
13. Helps a shark sense pressure waves in the environment
15. The plant-like animal that is a clownfish's best friend
16. Largest member of the ray family which cannot sting and eats plankton

DOWN:

1. A member of the group of mammals including true seals and eared seals
2. The material of a shark's skeleton
4. State shell of New Jersey
5. A living fossil with blue blood, green eggs, and a long tail but no stinger
8. A scary looking shark from our Atlantic Shark Tank that swims with its mouth always open
9. Process of regrowing a missing arm in seastars
10. An animal having two halves to the shell like a clam or oyster.
12. Spiky relatives of the seastar.
14. A type of eel with very sharp teeth often found in coral reefs